

901-905

Contest of Berenger with Lewis of Ales, who is crowned emperor

The Damadis also won over the emir of Yemen .

901

1912 Dates J-BK

England
Death of AELFRED

Oct. 27, 901

Having once more saved his country, the great King Alfred the Great of England died at the age of 52.

His principal writings are:
Translation from "Universal History" of OROSIUS. A fine description of North Central Europe and the account of 2 voyages of discovery.

by the explorers OTHER & WULFSTAN
He translated Bede's "Ecclesiastical History"

He translated "De Consolatione Philosophiae" of BORRIVS. as well as Gregory's
"Cura Pastoralis and Dialogs"

He collected a book of sayings called "BLOOMAS"
He fostered "The Anglo-Saxon Chronicle" and a biography by ASSER are sources for life of Alfred